

SMALL BUSINESS BOOTCAMP

 Entrepreneurial Assistance Program *****

Instructor

Mr. Ed Rutland, President of Jupiter Marketing and Executive Vice President and Managing Director of Matlock Advertising and Public Relations, has extensive business experience in corporate settings as well as in the entrepreneurial arena. He has held executive management positions at several consumer marketing companies such as Borden, Inc., E. & J. Gallo Winery, Chattem Drug and Chemical and LM Foods. This training program will also be taught by business professionals including lawyers, accountant, insurance agent and other guest speakers from government and industry.

“The EAP training went beyond my expectations. The caliber of people that came to lecture was impressive. Each week I was excited to come to the seminars. Most days there were lively discussions on various topics and how they relate to the current market condition...”

Michelle Delli Santi
(EAP 2008 Student)

For 10 weeks (60 hours) you will learn:

- Business Plan Development
- Small Business Legal Issues
- Taxation and Marketing
- Financing and Insurance
- Financial Management
- Free government resources
- And much more!

Date & Time

October 3 - December 19, 2009
Ten Saturdays, 10AM - 5PM

Location

Chinatown Manpower Project
70 Mulberry Street 3/FL, New York, NY 10013

Registration

Please call (212) 571-1690 ext.234, 248 or 203
Registration Fee: $225

(Call us to find out eligibility for FREE classes)

Chinatown Manpower Project Business Outreach Center is supported by the following organizations:

