

April 2024

Dear Friends,

Please join us to support the work of CMP, celebrate the impacts of women in the work place, and be a sponsor of CMP's 2024 Gala: AccomplisHERS – Honoring Women's Career Achievements.

To be held on Thursday, April 18th at 6:30 pm at the breathtaking Terrace on the Park at 52-11 111th Street, Queens, NY 11368, CMP's annual gala regularly attracts over 350 distinguished guests from diverse career paths and backgrounds. This year, you will be joining CMP to recognize the career and social contributions of a cast of all female honorees, who demonstrated the profound impact of women in the workforce.

Whether they built and operate a successful small business, lead a mission driven non-profit organization, mentor women in a competitive corporate environment, opened up career pathways for Asian American women in the performing arts arena, or exemplifies the career aptitudes of immigrants in a world class company, our honorees are connected together with a common social consciousness, a care for social causes that they value as much as their own personal success, and continuously give back to support those who are less fortunate, disadvantaged, or just needed a little lift to start their own rise to maximizing their full potentials. This is where the social causes of these women and CMP's mission align.

Your support not only shows our honorees that they have good companies in pursuing their social cause, but it is also important to help CMP to advance our mission in assisting future role models and leaders in the work place. Kindly choose one of the support options in the enclosed sponsorship package and return it to us in your earliest convenience.

For information, please contact Shirley Zou at shirleyzou@cmpny.org, (646) 292-9667, or Hong Shing Lee at honglee@cmpny.org, (646) 2929-9669. Thank you.

2024 Honorees

Mrs. Amy Mak Chan, is President of the Fook Funeral Group. She has more than thirty years of experience in funeral service. Her high standards and attention to detail continue to inspire those around her to provide the best and personalized service that is tailored to each family. Mrs. Chan runs her business with great success, but with a woman's compassion. In 1997, Mrs. Chan established the Celestial Love Foundation, a not-for-profit organization that works to help those who do not have any direct family members or means to fulfill their final journey in this world.

Isabel Ching, LMSW, is Executive Director of Hamilton-Madison House, a nonprofit settlement house established in 1898 to provide a safe home for New Yorkers citywide to thrive. Isabel has been with HMH for 27 years, providing both direct services and executive-level leadership to the organization. Isabel is the first Asian American woman to head up a New York City settlement house and is the only Asian American Executive Director in the 126 years of history of Hamilton-Madison House.

Amy Ho, CPWA, CFP, is Managing Director, Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) Group, Business Operations & Control Executive at Bank of America. She oversees the ongoing execution and development of effective risk governance across the CAO organization. Amy is active in corporate employee resource groups. She is Enterprise Co-Chair of the Parents & Caregivers Network, and legacy mentor for Women's Exchange as well as the Cherie Blair Foundation's Mentoring Women in Business program. Amy gives back to the place where she spent her formative years. She is on the Board of Managers and Chairs its Board Development Committee for the YMCA of Greater New York, Chinatown Branch.

Baayork Lee, is a pioneer for Asian American women in theatre arts. Born in New York's Chinatown, she made her Broadway debut in the King and I at the age of 5. In 1975, Baayork participated in the workshops from which A Chorus Line was developed. Along with the cast, she won the 1976 Theatre World Award for Ensemble Performance for the show. Baayork performed in and choreographed many shows throughout her career. She founded the non-profit NAAP (the National Asian Artists Project) to showcase the work of Asian-American theatre artists.

Melody (Qinqing) Gu, is a Finance Manager at WPP, a world leader in communications, experience, commerce, and technology. She started her journey as an immigrant in late 2007. Facing the challenges of learning a new language, adjusting to new culture and customs, and deciding what to do with her future, she enrolled in a full-time, 13-week program at CMP, where she learned English, computers, cultural immersion, and career/college preparation. With CMP's encouragement and assistance, she pursued a college education and obtained her Bachelor's degree in Accounting from Queens College. Melody joined the world's largest media investment company GroupM, a WPP company, in 2014, and now manages the Finance Department at the WPP company Midas Exchange, supervising and mentoring a team of 20-plus people.
